CORE VALUES

ZIP Core Values

Value for Money

We believe all Marketing Products spend is an investment in your business and must deliver and demonstrate value. ZIP achieves customer value by providing the promotional concept, right through to delivery of the product and measuring that value with your customer.

Customer Care

We don't have a policy or department handling customer care. We firmly believe customer care is an attitude, not a department. We aim to deliver you the best product, for the best price, on time.

Personalised Service

We deliver a personalised service with one point of contact. Our staff are experienced in all aspects of our processes and business. One consultant will deal with your order from the concept stage, right through to delivery and after sales service.

Competitive Rates

All items are competitively priced. Our position and experience in the marketplace gives us access to 1000's of manufacturers worldwide, ensuring our customers are getting the best value and quality.

Print

ZIP takes pride in ensuring your print material is innovative, cutting-edge, and in line with your brand values and your business objectives. Our branding process will ensure that your print material complements all your digital and on-line activity, so that you tell one powerful, consistent story both on-line and off-line.

We use state-of-the-art digital print technology to produce sharp black lines and vibrant colours. Whether you're printing straightforward text or full colour brochures, postcards, flyers, posters or conference materials, our printing equipment and experienced technicians ensure quality print results, every time.

Whatever you need to print and whatever you need to print on, we can do it all. Print brings ideas to life, tells stories, builds businesses, guides & inspires, here at ZIP we are passionate about Print and love bringing ideas to life.

With short runs on our extensive digital printing machines, large volume runs on our lithographic machines and specialised personalisation, we can offer you the whole package, all under one roof.
